

Level 1

1. VERBS

Doing words

Latin examples: amo=I love, audio=I hear

Some verb terms:

Tenses

These tell us when the verb action happened. The Level 1 verb tenses are:

Present=I am doing/I do

Imperfect=I was doing/I used to do

Perfect=I have done/I did

Infinitive

This means “to do something” e.g. to love.

Latin endings: ARE, -ERE, -IRE e.g. amARE=to love, regERE=to rule, audIRE=to hear don't forget ESSE=to be

Persons

Verbs have persons e.g.

Person	Singular	Plural
1 st	I	We
2 nd	You (singular)	You (plural)
3 rd	He, she, it	They

e.g amANT (they love) would be 3rd person plural, present tense

Number

whether the verb is singular or plural

e.g. the number of amANT would be PLURAL

Imperatives (Commands)

e.g. Be quiet! Sit down!

The Latin endings are:

singular	plural	meaning
spectA	spectATE	look!
sedE	sedETE	sit down!
audi	audITE	listen!

Level 1

1st person singular, present tense

If you are asked to give the 1st person singular present tense of a verb this means that you must give the most basic form of the verb-the one which ends in O.

e.g. amO, regO etc

Conjugations

This is a group of verbs which follow a certain pattern. Each group has slightly different endings. There are four conjugations in Latin plus one called “3½” (or mixed) which is a cross between the 3rd and 4th conjugations.

Verbs for Level 1 (all conjugations)

	1	2	3	3½ (mixed)	4	irregular

2. NOUNS

Names of something e.g. book, tree, desk

In Latin nouns have different endings.

These tell you the noun's job in a sentence.

The noun's job is called the case

Case Name	Meaning
Nominative	subject of sentence
Vocative	When talking to someone
Accusative	object of sentence
Genitive	of
Dative	to or for
Ablative	by, with or from

Other noun terms

Gender

masculine, feminine or neuter

Number

Whether the noun is singular or plural

Subjects and objects

If you are asked for the subject of a verb you must look for who is doing the verb action e.g.

 verb
 Marcus puerum videt

 verb
 Marcus sees the boy

The subject would be Marcus.

If you are asked for the object of a sentence you must find who is having the verb action done to them, so in the sentence above the object would be "puerum" (boy).

A much easier way to spot subjects and objects is to learn the noun table below and the case meanings (above).

TOP TIP: If you are asked for the case of the word "puellae" in the sentence below it will be vocative (when talking to someone).

"salvete, puellae!" "Hello, girls!"
 The speech marks are the main clue.

genitive	puellarUM	dominORUM	puerORUM	bellORUM
dative	puellIS	dominIS	puerIS	bellIS
ablative	puellIS	dominIS	puerIS	bellIS

3. PRONOUNS

A pronoun is a word which can replace a noun in a sentence. Examples are:
I, you, we, this, that

Personal Pronouns

These are not essential in Latin because the verb person is contained in the verb itself e.g. amo=I love.

When they are used with a verb it is often for extra emphasis or to point out a contrast e.g. ego clamo sed tu tacet=I shout but you are quiet.

You only need to know the nominative and accusative endings for Level 1.

	I	You (singular) SINGULAR
nominative	ego	tu
accusative	me	te
PLURAL	We	You (plural)
nominative	nos	vos
accusative	nos	vos

4. ADJECTIVES

These describe nouns e.g. big, small

Latin examples and possible endings:

Bonus=good (masculine ending)

parva=small (feminine ending)

magnum=big (neuter ending)

TOP TIP: you may be asked to give the gender of a noun. You can tell this from any adjectives next to it e.g.

Noun	Adjective	Gender
puella	bonA	feminine servus	parvUS	masculine
periculum	magnUM	neuter

Of course it would be even easier to learn the noun's gender when you learn your vocab!

5 ADVERBS

These describe verbs e.g. slowly, quickly

Possible Latin endings:

-E e.g. lentE=slowly
-TER e.g. celeriTER=quickly

Also look out for:

Adverbs of Time

e.g. subito=suddenly deinde=then diu=for a long time

TOP TIP: If you get really stuck you could always look for NON (not) which is also an adverb. It will be found in front of a verb e.g. NON curro=I do not run

6. PREPOSITIONS

Tell us where something is (the positions of things) e.g.: in, on, under

In Latin prepositions always stand in front of a noun.

The noun following it always has an accusative or ablative ending.

6. PREPOSITIONS CONTINUED

You may be asked to find the following in a Latin passage:

1. a preposition followed by a noun in the accusative case
2. a preposition followed by a noun in the ablative case

To answer this question you must learn this list carefully:

Prepositions followed by accusative nouns	Meaning	Prepositions followed by ablative nouns	Meaning
ad	to, towards	a/ab	from, by contra	against	cum	with in *	into	de	down from, about per	through, along	e/ex	out of prope	near	in *	in trans	across

* Be careful with “in”

With the accusative it means “into” e.g. I go into the classroom

With the ablative it means “in” e.g. I stand in the classroom

7. NUMBERS

There are two types:

Cardinal numbers are ordinary numbers e.g. one, two, three etc

e.g. Latin: unus, duo, tres

Ordinal numbers tell us the order of something e.g. first, second, third etc

e.g. Latin: primus, secundus, tertius

8. WORD CONNECTIONS

Sometimes you may be asked to say what a word means and its connection with an English word e.g.

Latin word	English word	Connection between them
duo	duet	duo=2. A duet is a piece of music performed by 2 players

9. CONJUNCTIONS

These are connecting words which join parts of a sentence together. Some English and Latin examples are given below:

et=and enim/nam=for itaque=and so quamquam=although quod=because sed=but si =if
